

Dearest Rose, I can't thank you enough for your Spiritual Coaching services which have healed me in so many ways. I have suffered from anxiety and depression for many years, and even medication had little effect on me. But now, thanks to your loving guidance, I'm no longer taking anxiety medication and my depression is gone. You have helped me create a stronger connection with Spirit, feel more confident and loving, and I couldn't be happier! You have been a wonderful blessing to me and I will forever be grateful! I could never have imagined that your guidance could be so life changing, and that it could happen so quickly. You are a wonderful person and a gifted Teacher!!! May God bring you many, many blessings. Love, Louise Nielsen
