Hi Rose,

My testimonial follows:

I have participated in a number of Rose's meditations and I feel blessed to have that opportunity. Her meditations have often started my day with peace, joy and love. What better way to begin a new day energized, filled with these wonderful gifts! Not only do those gifts fill my Being, they flow out from me so that others may benefit as well.

There have been evenings where I have dialed onto the replay line, participated in one of her recorded meditations and slipped in to a peaceful sleep, having been able to release the stresses and turmoil of the day, or perhaps release some old baggage that we all seem to stow and carry with us.

Thank You Rose, you have been and continue to be a blessing for me and many others.

Peace and Joy, Love and Light!
