

Dear Rose,

Thank you for your kindness in providing me the reading and the support last time. I have learned to ask for help from my guardian angel and I think my prayers are heard.

I would like to let you know that my husband has arrived in Toronto at the beginning of this month. Everything was very smooth and went well.

I also told my husband about how amazing you are after we finished our reading in August, he was very touched and surprised as he rarely believes in supernatural powers before.

I had always wanted to thank you since your reading for me, but kept getting busy.

As for me, I am still in the process of upgrading my skills. I am changing to a different role next month, although it is not my destination in my career path, but it is one step closer. I will keep in touch with you about my own progress as well!

I wish you all the best!

Wei (Vivi) Song